Sir,

Temporary reduction of pension- Collector's Orders- Ratification- requested.

ENCLOSURES _____

SPARE COPIES _____

Charges were pending against Mr. Oosman Sherif a Tahsildar of this district at the time of his retirement from service. They were disposed of by my predecessor (Mr. L.C. Wood) ordering the reduction of pension of Mr.
Oosman Sherif by Rs 5 a month for a period of 12 months.
The Accountant General now points out in his No. O-1 of 37-38/4374 dated 16th March 1938 that the sanction of Government is necessary for the reduction of pension under G.O.Ms. 133 dated 16th March 1938 Finance, Pension Department.
Article 470(b) of the C.S.R. does not seem to contemplate any temporary reduction of pension. However, I submit the papers for the orders of the Government as desired by the Accountant-General.

The pension application of Muhammad Oosman Sheriff Sahib, retired Tahsildar, Harpanahalli, Bellary district, is resubmitted to the Government, with specific remarks regarding the character and past conduct of the officer, duly recorded - therein.

2. In his proceedings D.Dis. 139-A/38, confdl., dated 5th March 1938, the Collector of Bellary has ordered that the pension of the Tahsildar should be reduced by Rs.5/- a month, for 12 months.

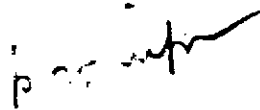

Under Rule 1 of the Madras Subordinate Services, Penalties and Appeal Rules, temporary reduction from pension is not an authorised form of penalty which a Collector can impose on disciplinary proceedings instituted by him. As the power to reduce pension vests only with the Government, and has not been delegated to the subordinate authorities and as the Tahsildar who has since retired from service has not appealed, the Board considers that the Collector's finding must be accepted as an opinion on the question of reduction of pension. It accordingly recommends that the Government may be pleased to ratify the Collector's order reducing the pension of the Tahsildar.

2. Muhammad Aslam Sheriff, Tahsildar, Sahibganj retired on 15-1-1938 owing to superannuation. He took charge as Tahsildar, Haryana Taluk on 2-4-37 and was in charge of that taluk until his retirement. On 2-12-37 ~~four~~ charges were framed against him. The charges related to slackness of control and supervision over his staff in his office and outside, the irregularity in the disposal of loan applications, and neglect in the discharge of his duties. The Tahsildar did not ask for an oral explanation and his written explanations are at pages 13-21 of the file at (17). His chief defence was that the Taluk was without a Tahsildar for a month before he took charge on 2-4-1937, that the work was consequently in confusion, and that the staff was ^{mainly} responsible for the errors and irregularities pointed out and that some of these irregularities had happened in his predecessor's time. The collector in his order ^{85.3.38} at page 43--46 of (M) found that the Tahsildar's work was slack. He remarked that in the ordinary course he would have postponed the Tahsildar's increment or reduced him in the time-scale. As, however, the Tahsildar had already retired, the collector directed that his pension should be reduced by Rs 5 for twelve months.

3. Under Art. 470 C S R. the full pension admissible under the rules is not to be given as a matter of course or unless the service rendered has been really approved and it is open to the sanctioning authority to make such reduction in the pension as it thinks fit if the service has not been thoroughly satisfactory. It is understood from Mr. (Per), however, that orders reducing the pension can only be issued by the Govt and that the collector's order in this case is ultra vires. The Board recommends, however, that the collector's order temporarily reducing the pension may be upheld.

4. Govt. of the pension application at 2-19 CO relating to the character and past conduct of the applicant has now been filled by the present Auditor who has characterized him as "good" without qualification. Recent remarks in the Confidential record at flag (T) and the papers at flag (M) hardly justify this remark so far as the Tahr's work is concerned.

5 It is, however, for consideration whether the charges against the Tahr are of such a serious character as to justify a reduction in pension though temporary. The file may be returned to Jic (Per) with the remarks of this day

The Tahr was hopelessly inefficient but since there was nothing wrong with him. No reduction need be ordered.

[Previous note of Finance on page 1 ante]

The case deals with the pension application of Osman Shariff Sahib Bahadur, late Tahildar, Harpanahalli, Bellary District.

2. The applicant's qualifying service has been proved for 34 years 7 months and 8 days which entitles him to a pension not exceeding Rs 127-7-0 p.m. The point for consideration is whether the pension in this case should be full or reduced. Charges were pending against the officer at the time of his retirement. These related to slackness of control and supervision over his staff, irregularities in the disposal of loan applications and neglect in the discharge of his duties. As a result of the enquiry, the collector ordered a reduction of Rs 5/- in the pension for a period of 12 months.

Reduction of pension is not an authorised form of penalty that can be imposed as a result of disciplinary proceedings. Nor has the power to reduce pensions been delegated to the subordinate authorities. If the authority empowered to sanction pension considers that it is open to question whether the full pension admissible should be granted to an officer whose

Please see the orders of the Govt. on page 4 ante. A draft order is submitted ~~that~~ sanctioning the full pension of Rs. 127-7-0 p.m. to the late Tahsildar, admissible to him under the rules. (It seems unnecessary to make mention of the Govt's [#] decision not to reduce the pension with reference to Art. 470 of the C.R.)

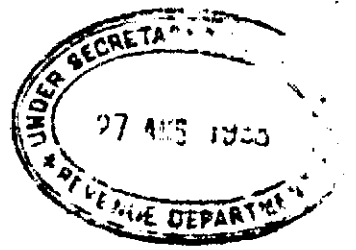

KK 7 25.8.38 SR 26838 1-1-1

But in view of the recommendation of the Board, it must be informed that it is not permissible to make a temporary reduction in this case. I have added a para
